

New Report: A condensed version of the GL Summary report is now available, it lists the total credit and debit for each account for the selected period.

New Feature: An option so the user can remove mandatory sellable attributes without using the toggle has been added.

New Feature: Custom email body can now be defined for each invoice type.

New Feature: The item's UPC code can now be copied to the clipboard from the invoice spread.

New Feature: An option has been added so that when one protection service is assigned to an invoice item, the others don't need to be flagged as refused. The option can be found in the configuration window, Invoice -> Page 4 -> Miscellaneous

New Feature: Multiple addresses can now be entered in the recipient field when sending an email from Alice, using a comma as the separator.

New Feature: An expiration date can now be defined for quotes.

Improvement: An option has been added to include the refund total in the before taxes subtotal value in the "Amount" sub window. The option can be found in the configuration window, Invoice -> Page 4 -> Miscellaneous

New Feature: New tool to remove membership from a contact, usable by admins and user with the new specific right.

New Feature: A default CC address can be configured, it will be added the the CC list of all outbound emails sent by Alice POS.